L'Occitane to Become New Constituent of the Hang Seng Composite Index

(10 August 2018, Hong Kong) L'Occitane International S.A. ("L'Occitane" or the "Company", or together with its subsidiaries, the "Group"; SEHK stock code: 973), a leading natural and organic ingredient-based cosmetics and well-being products company, is pleased to announce it will be included in the Hang Seng Composite Index \("HSCI"\) and the Hang Seng Consumer Goods & Services Index \("HSCGSI"\) by Hang Seng Indexes Company Limited ("Hang Seng Indexes"), effective 10 September 2018.

The HSCI is a comprehensive Hong Kong market benchmark that covers about the top 95th percentile of the total market capitalisation of companies listed on the Main Board of the Stock Exchange of Hong Kong ("SEHK"). Following a consultation by Hang Seng Indexes, foreign companies with a primary listing in Hong Kong¹ will be eligible for inclusion, alongside stapled securities and Greater China weighted voting right companies.

Mr. Reinold Geiger, Chairman and Chief Executive Officer of L'Occitane, said, "We greatly welcome the inclusion of eligible foreign companies in these indices. Hong Kong has been a great listing home for L'Occitane, and this decision better reflects the city's status as a global finance centre.

"The Group's inclusion in this widely benchmarked index represents the market's recognition of our professionalism and financial stewardship, and places us within the investment universe of a larger number of institutional investors, which could drive further liquidity and visibility. We remain focused on our long-term strategies to deliver profitable growth and lasting value for our shareholders."
